This romantic Spanish home is centrally located in Ruth Hardy Park in the Casas del Desierto development. Designed for comfort and enjoyment both indoors and out. The kitchen features rustic stained wood cabinets, freestanding range set in a recessed and arched niche and stainless steel appliances. The swimming pool is huge. A detached spa off the master suite with built-in entertainment center doubles as an additional water feature. There is a family room, large laundry room, double garage with side entry, and walk-in closets. Saltillo floors, beamed ceilings, wood panel doors, plantation shutters, French doors and wrought iron hardware all add to this homes charm.
