One of the prettiest homes you will ever see. Like a brand new home yet Old World Spanish charm with postcard perfect scenes at every turn. Located on a large lot in Casas del Desierto, this home has good flow. Enter under covered patio to the living room with fireplace, then continue poolside past the formal dining room to the central kitchen, which opens to a family room with built-ins and views out of every window. Hand forged copper sink, intricate iron accents, carefully selected tiles, French doors and much more. The master suite has a beautiful bath and its own patio and built-in outdoor shower while bedrooms 2 and 3 are nice suites also. The outdoors has an inviting fireplace with built-in seating and outdoor cooking area. Mature landscaping makes this home private and lush and red brick beautifully accent the desert colored exterior. Wait till you see the rock lined salt water pool and perched spa and unobstructed SW mountain views.
